

If Weather is hot & sunny please provide hats and suncream

Now the weather is getting warmer we will be out in the garden more than ever, please ensure your child wears suitable shoes and provide named sun cream. We are still working on encouraging independence, please encourage your children at home to put coats on, shoes on/off etc, especially those children who are due to move on to big school in September. We are also working on recognising numbers and pencil control in preparation for school. Please ask your child's key person for any further information.

Changing Sessions – Autumn 2023

Please speak/email Amanda if you wish to change or increase your child's hours from September 2023. We are already getting very busy and would obviously like to give our present children priority

Coronation 2023

We will be celebrating the King Charles III coronation during the week of 2nd – 5th May with lots of different activities and a tea party on Friday afternoon between 2pm – 3pm

Leaver's Party

will take place on Monday 17th July from 12:15pm until 2:30pm with lunch followed by an entertainer. Presentation at 2:30pm for parents to attend
